

Randy Wirick

---

Education

Bachelor of Science, Biochemistry, Seattle Pacific University, Seattle, WA.
Associate Degree, Nursing, Bellevue Community College, Bellevue, WA.
Master of Business Administration, City University, Seattle, WA.
Master of Public Administration, City University, Seattle, WA.

Professional Experience

Contractor/Consultant – As an independent contractor or consultant, Randy has successfully transitioned multiple healthcare organizations, businesses and non-profit organizations throughout his career. This has involved assuming control of the organization, resetting visions/missions/objectives and correcting operational concerns. Often this involved the need to address quality care issues, as well as the expected financial and market concerns.

He has purchased, developed and sold two companies for profit: Allegiance, Inc. and Diomedea Enterprises. Recently he has formed and now manages the companies of ANR Commercial for the development of business warehouse rentals; and Wirick Properties for agricultural farm management.

Personal Information

Randy was born in Seattle, Washington and raised by his father in the small, rural town of Goldendale. He has been married to Anita for over 30 years. They have lived in various areas of Alaska for over the last 25 years, including the bush. Their two grown sons were raised in the independent outdoor spirit of Alaska and are now married. His passion for fly-fishing has been his life-long source of adventure.

---