

Kimberly DeVries

Education

Bachelor of Arts, Music, Luther College
Master of Music, Music Performance, State University of New York

Professional Experience

As a singer, pianist, composer, conductor, and music teacher, Kimberly DeVries, has been involved with a variety of musical endeavors throughout her career.

Kimberly was trained musically at Luther College and the State University of New York at Stony Brook. While at Luther, Kimberly worked with choral director, Weston Noble and at SUNY studied with conductor, Dr. Timothy Mount.

Kimberly has directed numerous choirs and orchestras in Arizona, New York, Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, and Virginia including both adults and students from K-12. She taught private voice and piano, was assistant choir director of the Long Island Symphonic Choral Association and accompanied for various professional music organizations. While completing her Masters of Music in Choral Conducting at the State University of New York, Kimberly directed various university choirs including the adult and children's choir position as Chorus Master for the SUNY Opera Program.

Kimberly recently began a personal network marketing business with Nerium International. Formed in 2011, Nerium has reached $1 billion in cumulative sales in 2015. In August, INC. magazine announced its 34th annual Inc. 500 List of America's Fastest-Growing Private Companies, recognizing Nerium International as the #1 consumer products and services company. In addition, Nerium ranked #12 on the list overall. Beginning as a Brand Partner with Nerium, Kimberly has quickly become Senior Brand Partner and Director with her own growing sales organization.